

ROYAL HAIR FORCE

Shiny, sleek and just begging to be stroked – no we're not talking about Lupo the new royal puppy. It's Kate's barnet of course, a global hair sensation that's launched a thousand blow-dries. Stand up and salute these brand new ways to get princess-perfect locks...

THE PHOTO OPPORTUNITY

Royal hairdressers can afford to take their time crafting a glossy do that's 100% pap perfect; those of us with trains to catch and kids to feed need beauty shortcuts. When Agadir Spray Treatment, £24, arrived on the beauty desk promising to slash blow-dry times in half while adding salon-esque shine, we were sceptical. We tried it the next morning. Hair shockingly shiny, bouncy and dry in 10 minutes flat. Unsolicited compliment from tester's husband. Words eaten for breakfast.
